TEXAS TRADITIONS

State Fair of Texas

Located in downtown Dallas, Texas, featuring Big Tex, the State Fair of Texas is a long running tradition originating in 1886. The State Fair of Texas is a great opportunity to enjoy fried fair foods, shop local vendors, learn about our Texan agriculture, attend livestock shows, and more! (fairparkdallas.com)

Sweet Tea, BBQ, and Mexican Food

Sweet tea, BBQ, and Mexican food are staples here in Texas, and we do it like no one else. Texans have passed down BBQ methods for decades, curating the perfect brisket and ribs, not to mention the smoky BBQ sauce unique to Texas. Located so close to Mexico, Texas prides itself in its delicious Tex-Mex with restaurants scattered across the State.

Cowboy Boots

A pair of cowboy boots is essential to doing the boot scootin' boogie across the Lone Star State!

Road Trips

Living in a state 773 miles wide, road trips are a common practice among Texans. Whether you're travelling from Denton in North Texas, 5 hours South to San Antonio, or from Lubbock in East Texas 8 hours to Houston on the coast, you can drive hours and never run out of beautiful Texas scenery.

Highway Bluebonnets

All along Texas highways in the Spring there are multitudes of beautiful wildflowers. Indian paintbrushes, buttercups, indian blankets, brown-eyed susans, and our State flower, bluebonnets create a scenic drive wherever you are headed!

Homecoming Mums

Texas is known for its "bigger is better" mindset, and school pride is not an exception. Texas High School homecoming football games hold a tradition of girls wearing extreme sized "mums" and their date wearing a garter. These are made with ribbons, feathers, beads, whistles, lights, etc.
